

RADIO STUDIES NETWORK CONFERENCE PROGRAMME
Thursday April 7, 2005

- 10:00 am      Registration and coffee
- 10:45 am      Welcome
- 11:00 am      Morning Panel Session (Chair: Dr. Tim Wall)
Salvatore Scifo, University of Westminster
Toward a common agenda for community radio research in the UK
- Richard Berry, University of Sunderland
Podcasting: Can the iPod kill the radio star?
- Andrew Dubber, University of Central England
Radio, digitalisation and the laws of media
- Kate Coyer, Goldsmiths College
Low power radio: A station in the hand is worth 500 channels of mush –
the movement for LPFM in the US
- 12:30 pm      Lunch buffet
- 1:30 pm      Afternoon Panel Session (Chair: Dr. Paul Long)
Winston Mano, University of Westminster
Radio Zimbabwe scheduling and everyday life
- Lenin Martell, National Autonomous University of Mexico
Where can we find the public radio service in Mexico?
- Dr. Tim Wall, University of Central England
National regulation in the age of global radio
- 3:00 pm      Coffee break
- 3:30 pm      Radio Studies Network General Meeting
- 5:00 pm      Break
- 6:00 pm      Dinner at Chez Jules Restaurant
- 7:30 pm      Listening Room (Facilitator: Andrew Dubber)
A selection of the best in radio from around the world.